Machine Oils at Nickell & Shurtz'

A. W. Nickell, reliable newsdealer, Brownville.

If you want to buy a farm or rent a house call on Wert & Co.

H. Stroble, of Brownville was in South Auburn last week.

August Frank and Mr. Cooper, of Humboldt, were in town last week.

Machine oils of all kinds at greatly reduced prices at Nickell's in Brownville.

We hear a vague sort of rumor that watermelons have made their appearance in the market.

Happy are they who have leisure to sit about in the shady places this scorching weather.

A Post of the G. A. R. was organized at Brownville last week with R. C. Berger as adjutant.

A base ball club was organized at Brownville last week, under the suggestive title of "Bricks."

A number of old soldiers from this county will attend the reunion at Grand Island next month.

Ab. Gates, of Brownville, who is laying brick at Pawnee City, passed through the city last week.

Hon. John L. Carson spent a portion of last week in this city, getting his new bank in readiness for business.

A small party from this city attended the band concert at Brownville last week, and report an enjoyable time.

Judge C. W. Wheeler, who has built more bridges than you could cross in a month of Sundays, was in town last week.

A man named John Kirkwood, living near Seward, is said to have raised a stalk of corn measuring 15 feet in length.

A team belonging to George McClary of Brownville, was drowned in the Missouri river at that place one day last week.

It is said that when some of the Brownville boys go hunting, the principal game they bring back is empty beer bottles.

The B. & M. R. R., known as the "Burlington Route" offers special advantages to travelers. See their advertisement in this paper. 6-23

It would be a relief to THE ADVERTISER boys if Dr. West, who occupies the rooms over our office, would put a thick carpet on his floor, or light shoes on his feet.

Hon. C. M. Hayden, of Concordia, Kansas, came in from the west last week after his wife and daughter, who have been visiting friends and relatives in this and Richardson county.

Miss Ella Dyas has been engaged to teach the Bedford school this fall and winter. We had hoped this estimable young lady would remain here and take charge of our new school.

J. D. Calhoun, of the editorial staff of the Lincoln Journal, is in Nemaha county raising havoc with the prairie chickens. It might be well if "Cal" would leave a few for breeding purposes.

John J. Cobry, the good-looking young man who sells boards for J. W. Kerns, is a little under the weather from one of the numerous complaints that afflict humanity during the warm season.

"Sunflower dances," where all the dancers deck themselves with that assthetic flavor, are the latest wrinkles. Lots of sunflowers here but too warm for dances.

Mr. John W. Kent and Miss Francis Burritt, both of this city, were quietly married on the 23d inst, by Justice Fowler at the residence of the groom's parents.

The contract for building the new school house in this city has been awarded to Harvey Johnson. The building is to be completed on or before the 25th of September.

"Little Thunder," a big Injin of the Chippewa tribe, died recently at Chicago, aged sixty-five years. L. T. was an orator, and some of his eloquence is preserved in the school readers.

The handsomest counter in this city is at Carson's new bank and was built by James Corbett, of Brownville. It is surprising what a mechanic like Jim can effect with a few tools, some nails and a lot of wood.

The memory of John Brown, whose "soul is marching on" was celebrated at Chicago on the 23d inst. in grand style. The object of the celebration was to start a fund for the purpose of erecting a monument to his memory. The widow of the martyr was present, having traveled all the way from California, for that purpose, upon invitation and passes furnished her. She is nearly 70 years old. She lives on a farm, in California, owned by herself and sons, her share of it being purchased by money contributed by friends of her husband. The old lady will be apt to return home with well filled pocket book, as the matter of smoothing her path as she advances toward the close life, is being urged. She will visit the grave of her husband, on the "old place" at North Elba, Essex county, New York, before she returns home.

The Milwaukee Sun says hazing at Harvard College has been effectually suppressed. It seems that the faculty of the college hired John I. Sullivan, the champion bruiser of the world, to come to that institution of learning, in the guise of a quaker lad and apply for admission as a freshman and then let nature take its course. The first evening after John's arrival he was induced on some pretext or another, to visit a certain room in the college, where he found about seventy of the boys, with every appliance to give him a first-class "hazing." The boys tossed him up in a blanket and when he came down after the first toss, he waded in and knocked the entire crowd endwise, corded the gang up in a corner, and hazing in that college has lost its charms.

The following effusion is pretty good for a Dakota orator: "No sharper, nobler, wider-awake, straighter-tobacco-spitter, more enterprising, whole-souled, generous, true-hearted and public-spirited men than ours ever left their stoga boot-prints on the golden sands of time. And no brighter, dearer, lovelier, creatures ever flitted through Oriental poet's rapt dream of paradise than our blessed dimly divinities, our home-made calico seraphs, patent-tinifiable-crimolined darlings, our Dakota sweethearts, wives, mother-in-law, and Mariannes, who are creation's special pets and prides, fitted to bear queenship in any realm."

A geological discovery has been made in Pennsylvania which reveals, it is said, the earliest traces of man on this continent. Mr. Wiggins, of Waverly, N. J., found on the top of the Alleghany Mountains, in Perry county Pennsylvania, a piece of metamorphic limestone upon which was closely visible the print of the right foot of a human being. The impression is about an inch deep and shows the five toes and the perfectly formed foot of a man. The piece of stone which has been sent to the Smithsonian Institution is of great antiquity and must have antedated the oldest memorials of Egypt.

The Inter Ocean says: It was a tobacco cancer that killed Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia. This sort of skin cancer is a disease of middle age. It is caused by a constant application of an irritant of some kind to the skin or mucous membrane, where the disease is located. It was Senator Hill's habit to hold a cigar in his mouth, with the nicotine-coated end against the left side of his tongue, and there is no doubt that this was the exciting cause in his case. Cancer was heredity in his family. About three years ago it developed in Mr. Hill's tongue, and there is a long history of treatment, which proved unavailing.

A court martial has been ordered at Newport barracks, near Cincinnati, to try a major on the charge of attempting to use his political influence to secure a revocation of an order from his superior officer, transferring him to the far west. Now if the court martial finds the major guilty, and anything is done to him that is very unpleasant, what is the army coming to? Will there be a court martial held over every day or two, hereafter, under such an ominous precedent.

The Grand Haven papers say that Gen. Garfield's brother, who resides on a small farm in northern Michigan, and is quite a poor man, is now building a fine house and barn upon the place, with money furnished him by Mrs. James A. Garfield, who is sharing with the poorer relatives of her husband the means with which his friends and admirers have so munificently provided her.

The cheekiest impudence is witnessed in the St. Louis Republican, lecturing people of other States on political honesty and propriety. The Republican should hold up its Democratic administration in Missouri by the nap of the neck, and ask the world to look, admire, and emulate.

Senator Van Wyck succeeded, before Congress adjourned in getting a proviso inserted in one of the appropriation bills, which cuts off the principal loop-hole for fraud in the Surveyor General's office. Tally one for Van.—Hastings Nebraskan.

Venor writes to the Boston Post under date of Ferry Beach, Me., Aug. 18: "One more hot wave, latter portion of month, and the straw-hat season is over."

An Extraordinary Offer.
There are a number of persons out of employment in every county,—yet energetic men willing to work do not need to be. Those willing to work can make from $100 to $500 a month clear, working for us in a pleasant and permanent business. The amount our agents make varies, some make as high as $500 a month while others as low as $100, all depending on the energy of the agent. We have an article of great merit. It should be sold to every house-owner, and pays over 100 per cent profit. Each sale is from $3.50 to $10. One agent in Pennsylvania sold 32 in two days, and cleared $64. An agent in New York made $45 in one day. Any man with energy enough to work a full day, and will do this during the year can make from $2,000 to $6,000 a year. We only want one man in each county, and to him will give the exclusive sale as long as he continues to work faithfully for us. There is no competition, and nothing like our invention made. Parties having from $200 to $1,000 to invest, can obtain a General Agency for ten counties or a state. Any one can make an investment of from $25 to $1,000 without the least risk of loss, as our circulars will show that those investing $25 can after thirty days trial return the goods unsold to us and get their money back, if they do not clear at least $100. They show that a General Agent who will take ten counties and invest $216 can after a trial of 90 days return all goods unsold to us, and have money returned to them if they fail to clear at least $750 in that time. There are many persons having money to invest, who could not give the business personal attention—such can employ sub-agents without leaving home—making a large amount yearly out of a very small investment. We are not paying salaries, but want men willing to work and obtain as their pay the profits of their energy. Men not willing to work on our terms will not work on any. THESE MEANING BUSINESS will receive our large descriptive circular, and extraordinary offer by enclosing a three-cent stamp, with their address. The first to comply with our terms will secure the county or counties they may wish to work. Address

Renner Manufacturing Co., 118 Smithfield St., Pittsburgh, Pa. 8w4

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure of Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure as one simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address The Culverwell Medical Co., 41 Ann St., New York, N. Y.; post Office Box, 450.
